

The Ascension Quartet

1115 NorthView Street, Lebanon, MO 65536 (417) 860-7444 – www.theascensionqt.com

The Ascension, a Southern Gospel quartet based in Lebanon, Missouri, is a dynamic group of talent who travel thousands of miles annually, sharing their ministry throughout the heartland of America. The members of the quartet deliver their testimonies through song and story to large numbers of people in churches as well as civic functions. The Ascension's presentation of the Gospel of Jesus Christ is moving and well received by all audiences.

The Ascension's latest CD, "A New Beginning" showcases the abilities of one of the Midwest's most beloved quartets. Owner and original Ascension member, Danny Parnell, sings the lead as smooth as ever on two of the songs. The talents of new members (from top to bottom) David Hartwell, Jimmie Moore, Jonathan Edwards and Dave Taylor are all featured in selections chosen to encourage the believer and draw the lost to Jesus Christ. The first radio single "I'm Going Home to Be With Jesus" has charted as high as #4 at KWFC radio in Springfield, MO (89.1 FM, www.kwfc.org). The title cut and next single for release, "New Beginning", is written and sung by Jimmie Moore. Piano player David Writer completes the group for a concert experience you will enjoy and remember. When they arrive to sing, you will know that they have prayed and prepared to be a blessing to all who hear.

The Ascension Quartet travels most weekends, and is a non-profit corporation. For more information about the group or to book the Ascension Quartet, call Danny at (417) 533-7883; or email info@theascensionqt.com.
